Sacramento Zoo to reopen Friday, January 15 after regional stay-at-home order lifted

(Sacramento, CA – January 13, 2021) -- Now that the stay-at-home order has been lifted for the Greater Sacramento Region, the Sacramento Zoo is pleased to announce that it will reopen to the public with regular hours on Friday, January 15, just in time for the weekend and some beautiful weather.

Tickets to the zoo will go on sale on Thursday, January 14 at 9am. All zoo admission tickets must be purchased in advance online through the zoo's website at www.saczoo.org.

"We look forward to reopening the zoo with beautiful weather this weekend," said Sacramento Zoo Director, Jason Jacobs. "We were closed for the busy spring months and the winter break and are ready to welcome our community back to the zoo. As a nonprofit the best way to support the zoo is by purchasing a ticket or membership and coming out to visit the animals."

With many species of rare, endangered and native animals, new exhibits for squirrel monkeys and alligators and a beautifully landscaped setting, the Sacramento Zoo is the perfect outdoor education and recreation opportunity for people of all ages who are looking for a safe and fun way to spend a day.

Visit saczoo.org beginning Thursday, January 14 at 9am to purchase tickets.
